ENGLISH TOWN AND TRADESMEN'S TOKENS.

The following collection of tokens has been made with care, and merits a more particular description than the limits of the Catalogue will allow. It is to be hoped, however, that it will not be overlooked by collectors in this beautiful series, but that the many rare specimens, the considerable number of proofs, and the uniformly fine samples here offered, in convenient lots, will secure a fair share of attention to this department of the Catalogue:

980. A varied lot of the Penny size. Cossack Penny; rev. bust of Wellington. Worcester Penny, British Copper Company Penny; rev. lion standing. The Anglesey Penny with Druid's head; and eight others, mostly very fine; 12 pieces.
